Marian & Hurshel Biggs

The Incredible Christmas Place and the shops at Bell Tower Square were founded as a family business by Hurshel and Marian Biggs in 1986. Today, our Bavarian-style village ranks as one of the top Christmas and collectibles stores in the United States, and is the largest in the south.

Since its humble beginning in a small shop by the historic Old Mill in Pigeon Forge, Christmas Place has grown to a multi-store shopping complex of over 35,000 square feet of showroom on the Parkway, delighting our third-generation customers at every turn. We offer the very best in Christmas decorations and gifts, creating over 50 new tree themes annually.

Our incredibly beautiful and meticulously maintained interior and exterior displays have been the setting for numerous TV specials and magazine features through the years.

We hope you will take the opportunity to explore the beauty and variety that we have to offer, enjoy our outstanding hospitality and customer service, and join us as we celebrate the spirit of Christmas every day of the year.
