

The Story of The Village

Welcome to "The Village". Our story is as unique as the shops it presents to you. We hope you will enjoy both while visiting beautiful Gatlinburg.

In 1965, this land was purchased by two families.

They didn't want to make any hasty decisions on its future, so they traveled extensively in search of the best idea for the land.

They compiled over 500 pictures with unusual ideas and met with architects to build a beautiful unique shopping complex. They decided on a place unlike any around, one with an old world ambiance. In order to create this complex to look true to itself, they went in search of architecturally appropriate building materials from the past. Their search to old homes, churches and buildings that were being demolished yielded numerous items they could use. They acquired thick roofing slates, heavily carved doors, trim moldings, antique gas lighting fixtures, handmade bricks and numerous other materials. In 1968, they began construction and completed the first 18 shops in 1970. The remaining 9 shops were built in 1982.

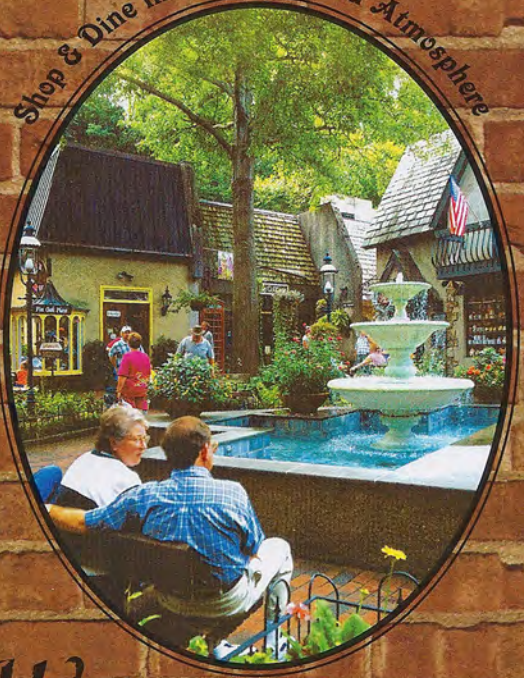

We invite you to step back in time at "The Village", Gatlinburg's most beautiful shopping complex with 27 wonderfully unique boutiques, eateries and galleries.
